Insolvency Institute of Canada

Law Student Writing Award Program 2022-2023

2023 Entry Form
Closing Date: June 15, 2023

Title and Subject of paper:
A Disorienting Plunge from the Ivory Tower: Laurentian University and the Future of Insolvency Proceedings for Publicly Funded Corporations (PFCs)

University and Program in which Author(s) is/are enrolled:
Osgoode Hall Law School, J.D. Candidate (2023)

Name of Entrant(s):

1 Kieran (Ciaran) Moloney

2

Home Address:
17 Doyle Drive

City: Barrie Province: ON Postal Code: L4N8M4

Telephone Number: 705-896-5172

Email Address of Entrant(s) 1: ciaranmoloney2021@osgoode.yorku.ca

Email Address of Entrant(s) 2:

☑ I certify that the submission entered above is an original composition unpublished in its present form in any publication. I agree to the terms concerning the submission of this entry as outlined below in Submission of Entries.

Name and Signature of the Faculty Sponsor: Aubrey Kauffman

Position of Sponsor: Professor - Osgoode Hall Law School

Office Telephone Number:

Email Address of Faculty Sponsor: akauffman@fasken.com

☑ I endorse the submission of this paper to the IIC Law Student Writing Awards Program and confirm that the author is a full-time undergraduate law student at the University noted above.

Submission of Entries:

Entries must be submitted by no later than June 15, 2023.

All entries will become the property of IIC and may be further published or used in any manner whatsoever as the IIC may see fit. Each entrant waives all proprietary rights he or she may have in and to the paper submitted.

Please Contact:

Executive Director Meghan Cross
for more information:

(613) 898-3078
mcross@insolvency.ca